

Cutlines

November 25, 1962

Baptist Press Photo

WORLD'S FAIR EXHIBIT--Gathered around a model of The Protestant Center under construction at the site of the New York World's Fair, to be staged in the city in 1964-65, are from left: Arthur L. Kinsolving, president, Protestant Council of New York City; Emilio Knechtle, chairman of the Council's directors; Dan M. Potter, executive director of the Council; J. Quinter Miller, assistant general secretary, National Council of Churches, and W. C. Fields, public relations secretary, Executive Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention. Baptists plan to have an exhibit in the center. (BP) Photo