

Baptist Press Photo

July 26, 1963

Cutlines

ADAMS, NIGERIAN CHAT--Theodore F. Adams of Richmond, Va., right, former president of the Baptist World Alliance, talks with Joseph Adegbite, head of Baptist boys' school in Lagos, Nigeria. They participated in 6th Baptist Youth World Conference assembled in Beirut, Lebanon. (BP) Photo.

Baptist Press Photo

July 26, 1963

Cutlines

INDIA'S GREETING--Miss Renuka Mukerji, president of Women's Christian College, Madras, India, reads a greeting to the 6th Baptist Youth World Conference at Beirut. Robert S. Denny, Washington, D. C., youth secretary for the sponsoring Baptist World Alliance, looks on. (BP) Photo.

Baptist Press Photo

July 26, 1963

Cutlin s

OFFICIAL WELCOME--Prime Minister Rasheed Karami of Lebanon, a Mosl m, w lcomes 3000 young people from 52 countries to Beirut for the 6th Baptist Youth World Conference. Finley M. Graham (right), Southern Baptist missionary in L. banon, interprets. (BP) Photo.

TUNING IN TRANSLATIONS--Arab registrants for the 6th Baptist Youth World Conference in Beirut tune in to speech translations ~~over~~ some of the 900 earphones installed in Chamoun Sports Stadium for their benefit. English was the official conference language. (BP) Photo.

Baptist Press Photo

July 26, 1963

Cutlines

MRS. TOLBERT--Mrs. William R. Tolbert, wife of the vice-president of Liberia, is welcomed to the 6th Baptist Youth World Conference at Beirut, Lebanon. At her immediate left is Josef Nordenhaug, Washington, D. C., general secretary of sponsoring Baptist World Alliance. (BP) Photo.

Baptist Press Photo

July 26, 1963

Cutlines

BEIRUT LEADERS--Some of the program personalities for the 6th Baptist Youth World Conference in Lebanon join in singing. They are David Jackson, Great Britain; Joseph Adegbite, Nigeria; S. A. Kayode, Nigeria; Mrs. Robert A. Hingson, and Dr. Hingson, both of Cleveland, Ohio. (BP) Photo.

Baptist Press Photo

July 26, 1963

Cutlines

BEIRUT MUSIC--Singing at the opening session of the 6th Baptist Youth World Conference in Beirut, Lebanon, was led by William J. Reynolds of the SBC Sunday School Board, Nashville. (BP) Photo.

Baptist Press Photo

July 26, 1963

Cutlines

SWEDISH CHOIR--A 70-voice choir from Sweden provides music for on of the sessions of the 6th Baptist Youth World Conference in Beirut. They flew to Lebanon in a chartered plane. (BP) Photo.

Baptist Press Photo

July 26, 1963

Cutlines

EXCHANGING VIEWS--Young people from 52 nations, somehow getting around the language curtain, exchanged ideas on a wide range of subjects during the 6th Baptist Youth World Conference in Beirut. (Persons in photo were not identified.) (BP) Photo.

Baptist Press Photo

July 26, 1963

~~Cutlines~~

200 VOICES--Young people from many lands made up the 200-voice conference choir at the 6th Baptist Youth World Conference which met in Beirut, Lebanon. (BP) Photo.