

Baptist Press Photo

October 26, 1963

Cutlines

Picture D:

WIDE BOARDWALK--This is a section of the famous Atlantic City, N. J., boardwalk. Doubtless many reunions will be held, many revival dates agreed on here during Boardwalk fellowship among Southern Baptist Conventioners next May. It will provide opportunity, because of Baptist Jubilee Celebration, to meet other North American Baptists. (BP) Photo

Baptist Press Photo

October 26, 1963

Cutlines

Picture E:

AIR VIEW--This air view of Atlantic City, N. J., 1964 Southern Baptist Convention and Baptist Jubilee Celebration city, shows waterfront Convention Hall (left of center); airport (center background), and downtown of the resort city. (BP) Photo

-30-

Baptist Press Photo

October 26, 1963

Cutlines

Picture F:

SURFSIDE '64--Miles of surf will be observed by messengers to the 1964 Southern Baptist Convention in Atlantic City, N. J., next May. Baptist Jubilee Celebration with other North American Baptists follows it. Hotels, the boardwalk, one of several piers jutting out into ocean and shorefront Convention Hall may be seen in this (BP) photo.

-30-

Baptist Press Photo

October 26, 1963

Cutlines

Picture A:

1964 HOSTS--G. W. Bullard, left, Baltimore pastor, and Roy D. Gresham, also of Baltimore, executive secretary, Baptist Convention of Maryland, stand before 40,000-seat Convention Hall in Atlantic City, N. J. Marylanders will be host state group to 1964 Southern Baptist Convention meeting there. Bullard is chairman of local arrangements committee for May meeting. (BP) Photo

-30-

Baptist Press Photo

October 26, 1963

Cutlines

Picture B:

ON THE BEACH--Atlantic City, N. J., Convention Hall, site of sessions of the 1964 Southern Baptist Convention and the follow-after Baptist Jubilee Celebration, is right on the beach. Several hotels are seen at left. It could be a little chilly for swimming in May, when Convention meets. (BP) Photo

-30-

Baptist Press Photo

October 26, 1963

Cutlines

Picture C:

CONVENTION HALL--This view of Convention Hall, Atlantic City, N. J., will become familiar sight to Southern Baptist Conventioneers who go there for 1964 session and stay for Baptist Jubilee Celebration to follow. The hall seats 40,000, is located along beach in this Jersey shore resort. (BP) Photo

-30-