

Cutlines

November 14, 1963

Baptist Press Photo

AT UNITED NATIONS--Forty Southern Baptists attended the 1963 United Nations and Foreign Policy Seminar at New York, conducted jointly by three Baptist conventions. Three of them are shown with Ambassador Francis T. Plimpton, second from left, of the United States mission to United Nations. They are from left, William M. Dyal, Nashville, on the staff of the SBC Christian Life Commission, a co-sponsor; Plimpton; Conwell A. Anderson, president, Judson College (Baptist), Marion, Ala., and Herbert R. Howard, pastor, Park Cities Baptist Church, Dallas. (BP) Photo

-30-

Cutlines

November 14, 1963

Baptist Press Photo

CONVENTION HOTEL--The Ambassador Hotel at Atlantic City, N. J., is the headquarters hotel for the Southern Baptist Convention next May. (BP) Photo

-30-