Dear Baptist Press friend:

The Southern Baptist Convention observes its first Race Relations Sunday Feb. 14. Baptist Press hopes to develop a story shortly afterward. This story would show some of the effective observances and results of Race Relations Sunday in individual churches. Preferably there would be some details. Any information you can forward to us between Feb. 15 and 20 on churches in your city and state will be gratefully received. Send names of likely churches even if you do not know details. We will follow through.

Thank you.
