YOUNG MINISTER IS FIRST
ENROLLEE IN NEW SEMINARY

NASHVILLE, Tenn.—(BP)—A young minister has applied for enrolment in the new Southeastern Seminary. He is Rev. Colie E. Rock, Jr., whose letter of application was received in Nashville on July 11, and addressed to Dr. Duke K. McCall, executive secretary of the S.B.C. Executive Committee. The letter was referred to Rev. J. W. Kincheloe, Hayes Barton Baptist Church, Raleigh, N. C., secretary of the Board of Trustees of the Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. Any other applications for enrolment should be addressed to Dr. Kincheloe.

CANADA ADOPTS BUDGET

TORONTO, Canada--(BP)--There is a new movement among Canadian Baptists to lead the Canadian Baptist Federation into the World Council of Churches. Traditionally, Canadian Baptists have been complete separatists.

Canadian Baptists have adopted a unified budget, the first time in their history. They will give 31 per cent to foreign missions and 31 per cent to home missions. Total budget is $240,000.

BAPTIST WORLD ALLIANCE MEETING TO GET GOOD NEWSPAPER COVERAGE

CLEVELAND, Ohio--(BP)--The Baptist World Alliance will have a completely staffed and equipped press room. Cleveland Baptists have employed Mr. Donald C. Bolles of New York City, a professional press relations expert to handle the job. In a conversation with Mr. Albert McClellan of the S.B.C. Executive Committee, he said, "I try to anticipate the needs of every newspaper man covering a convention. Adequate physical accommodations will be provided and we'll try to lay on the line as much as possible every advance and abstract and to keep a flow of information going to the press throughout the convention concerning all phases of the program."

Mr. Bolles expects 25 reporters from the secular press in addition to the religious press.
