

EMILY LANSDELL ELECTED
TRAINING SCHOOL PRESIDENT

LOUISVILLE, Ky--(BP)--Miss Emily Lansdell has been elected president of the Woman's Missionary Union Training School at Louisville, according to Mrs. George R. Martin, president of the Southern Baptist Woman's Missionary Union.

Miss Lansdell, who has served for several years as a missionary to China under appointment of the Foreign Mission Board, is a native of Georgia and a graduate of Coker College, B.A., 1933. She has studied in Columbia University and has master degrees from Duke University and Yale University.

--30--

BRANTLEY RESIGNS
NEW ORLEANS RESCUE MISSION

NEW ORLEANS, La--(BP)--Clovis A. Brantley has resigned as superintendent of the Rescue Mission and Woman's Emergency Home, Home Mission Board units in New Orleans, and has accepted the pastorate of Valence Street Baptist Church. Brantley has been superintendent of the work in New Orleans since 1940, having begun his service as an understudy of Dr. Newbrough during seminary days in New Orleans.

--30--