

DAWSON ASKS SUPPORT
LIQUOR CONTROL BILL

WASHINGTON, D. C.—(BP)—A telegram sent out this week by Dr. J. M. Dawson called for support of a bill before Congress to empower the Secretary of Defense to make regulations governing the sale of liquor in military establishments. The telegram is as follows:

"The House has adopted an amendment to the Universal Training and Service Bill S1 as follows: 'An amendment offered by Cole of New York as a substitute for that offered by Mr. Bryson, page 54, adds new section as follows: 'The Secretary of Defense is authorized to make such regulations governing the sale, consumption, possession of, or traffic in beer, wine or other intoxicating liquors, to or by members of the armed forces or the National Security Training Corps, at or near any camp station, post, or other place primarily occupied by members of the armed forces or National Security Training Corps. Any person, corporation, partnership, or association violating the regulations authorized hereunder shall, unless otherwise punishable under the uniform code of military justice, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000, or imprisonment for not more than twelve months, or both.' Conferees of the House will be Carl Vinson, Overton Brooks, Paul J. Kilday, Carl T. Durham, Dewey Short, Leslie C. Arends, and W. Sterling Cole. Conferees of the Senate will be chosen from among the following: Richard B. Russell, Harry Flood Byrd, Lyndon B. Johnson, Estes Kefauver, Styles Bridges, Leverett Saltonstall, and Wayne Morse. Glad we have this good news. Please wire or phone these men urging them to accept the Cole Amendment to S1 regarding alcoholic beverages to the Universal Training and Service Bill."

—30—

FIRST BROADMAN FILM
PREMIER AT SAN FRANCISCO

NASHVILLE, Tenn.—(BP)—Mr. Earl Waldrup, secretary of the Visual Aids Service of the Sunday School Board, states that "Bible on the Table," the first Broadman film, will be ready for premier showing at the Pastors' Conference in San Francisco on June 19.

"Bible on the Table," is a story by George A. Hammon, Baptist pastor in Missouri, which appeared originally in Home Life. Its dramatic message portrays the effect of family worship in a nominal Christian home. A family altar practice saved the home from its drift into worldliness.

The film is Broadman's first production under the new arrangement of the Southern Baptist Convention which placed responsibility for the production and distribution of audio visual materials with the Sunday School Board.

—30—

HOME PROGRAM
FEATURES LEE AND HAYS

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif.—(BP)—The East, the West, and the Midsouth will meet on the platform of San Francisco's Civic Auditorium for a Christian Home Service on Sunday afternoon, June 24, according to Joe W. Burton who will be in charge of this session of the Southern Baptist Convention.

Dr. R. G. Lee, from the Midsouth, will speak on a theme dear to his heart at that hour. The Convention president has always majored on the home in his ministry. His subject at the Christian Home Service will be "Ramparts of Righteousness."

Also on the program will be the family of Toxey T. Fortinberry, members of Dr. Lee's church in Memphis. This family is featured in the June Home Life.

The East will be represented by Brooks Hays, an Arkansas congressman serving in the nation's capitol, who will give a report on "Southern Baptists and Their Home Ministry."

The West will be represented with a 200-voice San Francisco choir, conducted by Wilbur F. Martin, Golden Gate Seminary.