

March 31, 1952

127 Ninth Avenue, North

Nashville, Tennessee

CAUTHEN TO FLY FROM JAPAN
TO PREACH AT MIAMI CONVENTION

NASHVILLE, Tenn. --(BP)-- Dr. Baker James Cauthen, Tokyo, Japan, will be the speaker for the great evangelistic service climaxing the Southern Baptist Convention meeting in Miami, Florida, Sunday night, May 18. He will fly from Tokyo especially for this service.

The International Choir of Wayland College, Plainview, Texas, directed by Shelby Collier, professor of music, will sing for the service. Dr. Cauthen's topic will be "Christ Speaks to the Nations."

Dr. C. E. Matthews, superintendent of evangelism for the Southern Baptist Home Mission Board, will direct the program.

--30--

THIRD GENERATION PREACHER
COMING FROM GILL FAMILY

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. --(BP)-- Everett Gill, III, son of the secretary of Latin American missions for the Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board, made public his surrender to the ministry in a recent evangelistic service in Jacksonville, Florida.

The third-generation preacher's grandfather was a pioneer in Southern Baptist work in Italy.

Young Gill is now serving in the armed forces and is stationed at Jacksonville. Dr. Homer G. Lindsay, pastor of the First Baptist Church, announced that the church will license him to preach soon.

--30--

KENTUCKY MISSIONARY
MOVES TO FLORIDA

LOUISVILLE, Ky. --(BP)-- Dr. H. Floyd Folsom has resigned as superintendent of missions and evangelism of the Long Run Association of Baptists in Louisville to begin his new pastorate in Miami Shores Baptist Church, Miami, Florida.

A native of Florida, Dr. Folsom was a student at Southern Baptist Seminary in Louisville before his three years' service in the associational work.

--30--