

Nashville, Tennessee
July 6, 1954

Baptist Press

executive committee consisted of a statement on its alcoholic beverage policy and a request for authority to expend funds in connection with the television application."

--30--

OHIO HEADQUARTERS
MOVE TO COLUMBUS

COLUMBUS, Ohio--(BP)--The headquarters of the State Convention of Baptists in Ohio are moving from Dayton to Columbus. A building has been secured on the corner of East Court and South 4th Streets and alterations have been completed. The Baptist Book Store will share the premises.

--30--

RIDGECREST TO HOST
US AIR FORCE CHAPLAINS

RIDGECREST, N. C.--(BP)--A Spiritual Life Conference for 800 Protestant Air Force Personnel will be held here September 2-6, according to Willard Weeks, Assembly manager.

The conference, sponsored by the Chief of Air Force Chaplains, is open to officers, airmen, and their dependents.

--30--

BAPTIST FOLKS AND FACTS.....

Mrs. William E. Haltom, missionary in Hawaii, sustained a serious spinal injury that required surgery in a recent automobile accident while on a young people's outing.

Gus Johnson, layman who has served several years as educational director in Florida and Georgia churches, has been elected as Director of Camps and Assemblies and Promotion for Florida Baptists.

Father's Day for Willard K. Weeks, popular manager of Ridgecrest, was a real occasion. Four hundred staffers joined 600 former staffers in wishing "Daddy" Weeks, as they call him, a very happy day.

Saturday has been designated as Glorieta Day in Santa Fe, New Mexico, for benefit of those attending the assembly who want to do their shopping in the stores of the town.

"It may cost to do the will of God, but it costs more not to do the will of God," Dr. H. Leo Eddleman told 1,300 Baptist Sunday school workers in Ridgecrest.

During the recent YWA week in Ridgecrest, twenty-eight girls dedicated themselves to home and foreign missions, thirty-four made decisions for full-time service.

Glorieta received three "gully-washing" rains within one week's time during the recent Bible Conference.

"A religious vacuum is created in the American way of life which could be filled by perverted religion of communism itself," Dr. H. Leo Eddleman told a recent Ridgecrest (more)

Nashville, Tennessee
July 6, 1954

Baptist Press

young people's gathering.

Denton R. Coker, is the new assistant professor of Religious Education in Southeastern Seminary.

Mrs. B. O. Herring, wife of the president of Grand Canyon College, died June 24, after an illness of one year.

A new four-lane super highway between Ridgecrest and Old Fort makes it possible for Ridgecrest Assembly guests to see the beauty of the Western North Carolina mountains and yet dodge the narrow winding road between the two places.

Dr. Malcolm B. Knight, pastor of Southside Baptist Church, Jacksonville, Florida, will conduct church services on CBS "Church of the Air," Sunday, July 11. It will originate by transcription in New York from 10:00 to 10:30 a.m., Eastern Daylight Time.