

February 14, 1959

Baptist Press

WHATTA-MELON---New officers of the Southern Baptist Press Association take a look at a jar of Georgia products---sweet pickled watermelon rind. The remembrance was given them during their winter meeting at Savannah. The officers are from left, W. C. Fields, editor, Baptist Record, Jackson, Miss., vice-president; W. G. Stracener, editor, Florida Baptist Witness, Jacksonville, president and Erwin L. McDonald, editor, Arkansas Baptist, Little Rock, secretary.---Baptist Press Photo.

DIAL A SCHEDULE---Busy executive secretaries of state Baptist associations and conventions can fix schedules in a hurry now through the year 1974, just by twirling a miniature rotating calendar device given them at their winter meeting in Savannah, Ga. Officers of the executive secretaries, elected at Savannah, practice setting the calendar. They are from left, Forrest C. Feezor, Dallas, executive secretary, Baptist General General Convention of Texas, president; Ray E. Roberts, Columbus, executive secretary, State Convention of Baptists in Ohio, vice-president, and N. J. Westmoreland, Wichita, executive secretary, Kansas Convention of Southern Baptists, secretary.---Baptist Press Photo.