

February 21, 1959

Baptist Press

BUILDING OF WMU---The architect has drawn his conception of the two-story addition (above traffic light) to be made to Woman's Missionary Union office building in Birmingham, Ala. The present building has three floors, including basement level. Construction, to begin this spring, will cost $417,000, and care for expanding promotional and business needs.---Baptist Press Photo

-30-

Second photo: T. Sloane Guy, Jr., newly-elected executive secretary and superintendent of Southern Baptist Hospital board. He will succeed Dr. Frank Tripp of New Orleans, who is retiring. Guy has been pastor of First Baptist Church, Birmingham, Ala.

-30-