

BAPTIST FEATURES

Released by BAPTIST PRESS
127 Ninth Ave., N., Nashville, Tenn.

January 17, 1957

GOD'S WONDROUS WORLD
By Thelma C. Carter
(with illustration #3)

Can you imagine spraying catsup, peanut butter or mayonnaise on your food by merely pushing a button on top of a container? Food experts tell us this convenience is not far off because of a new push-button container called an "aerosol."

The word "aerosol" comes from a combination of "aero" meaning air and "sol" meaning liquid solution. An aerosol is a container of air and liquid solution.

For some time, we have been using aerosols in the form of insecticides, room deodorants, foam shave creams, hair preparations, perfumes, lotions and cleaning products. Aerosols originated during World War II when insecticides were sprayed in areas infested with malaria and other insect-borne diseases thereby saving thousands of men in our armed forces.

An aerosol is air-tight and push-button operated. Aerosol products are of the vapor, liquid spray and foam kinds. The term "aerosol" is new, but the idea and component parts are as old as fog and smoke which are, in their natural form, true aerosols.

It seems strange, but it's true of all the new scientific and chemical discoveries and products of today -- they were here in God's world when He created it! Industry and medicine are merely rearranging the old into the new! The Psalmist knew this when he wrote: "The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handiwork."

(Baptist Press Syndicate, all rights reserved, used by author's permission.)

(Is there something about God's Wondrous World you would like to see described in this column? If so please send your suggestions to Baptist Press Syndicate, 127 N. Ninth Ave., Nashville 3, Tenn.)

-30-

HIDE AND SEEK
By Carrie I. Quick

How would you like to play hide and seek with ten girls? To learn the names of the girls, you will have to find them. One girl is hidden in each of the 10 sentences below.

Oh, there is just one more little detail. Do you know who is it? You are!

Example:

This story has a SWELL ENDING.

Answers

- |                                          |           |
|------------------------------------------|-----------|
| 1. You won the big race.                 | 1. GRACE  |
| 2. Corn meal makes good muffets          | 2. ALMA   |
| 3. Is this all yellow paper?             | 3. SALLY  |
| 4. I cannot find my ball.                | 4. ANN    |
| 5. Where is my skate?                    | 5. KATE   |
| 6. I dare you to find me.                | 6. IDA    |
| 7. Why do rains feel cool?               | 7. DORA   |
| 8. This pear looks good.                 | 8. PEARL  |
| 9. Let's tell a girl where she's hiding. | 9. STELLA |

(Baptist Press Syndicate, all rights reserved, used by author's permission.)

30

January 17, 1956

Baptist Press Children's Page

I LIKE JANUARY
By Enola Chamberlin

I like this month because its rain,
Its deep-piled drifts of snow,
Are wetting down the soil so that
The springtime flowers can grow.

I like this month, its nights of cold,
Its pale sunshine by day,
Its leafless trees, because I know
God made it be this way.

(Baptist Press Syndicate, all rights reserved, used by author's permission.)